Re: Racist and anti-Semitic fliers received on networked campus printers

The UC Santa Cruz Police Department has received several reports of racist and anti-Semitic fliers being printed on networked campus printers, similar to what happened in March.

If you have received the flier, please report it immediately to the UC Santa Cruz Police Department at 831-459-2231, ext. 1 and file a report online at reporthate.ucsc.edu/. If you are ever a victim or witness to any hate or bias motivated crime or incident at UC Santa Cruz, please file a report immediately with the UC Santa Cruz Police Department at 831-459-2231 ext. 1.

More information about campus policies regarding hate or bias motivated incidents can be found at <http://reporthate.ucsc.edu/index.html>.

For students, a range of support services is available through the Cowell Student Health Center, including personal counseling through Counseling and Psychological Services.

For employees, the Employee Assistance Program can provide personal counseling and support. More information can be found online.

Report all in-progress crimes by calling 911 from any landline or cell phone. Reports may also be made by using one of the many "blue light," emergency or elevator phones located throughout the campus, or in person at the UC Santa Cruz Police Department.
